TTPC Meeting

Mantra:

"There are no others. I am journeying in life to become the best me I am capable of being."

Membership

My vision for Talent Think Power Circle (TTPC) is for this to be an official organization for women who identify as BIPOC. To execute some of the core values I have illustrated here we need to move to a membership model. Dues will be for the year.

Collaboration

It is my hope that TTPC becomes a place for members to network and collaborate with one another in an effort to further your own individual endeavors and our collective reach

Philanthropy

"To whom much is given, much is required." TTPC will be partnering with select organizations to ensure we are an organization that reaches back to uplift BIPOC women.

TTPC One Vision

In order to grow and sustain this group, I have decided to go to a membership model.

There is an intake form that must be filled out on or before 10/15 to express your intention to stay with the TTPC tribe. I have created three payment options in an effort to see that this does not become a financial burden to any of you.

I am also pleased to announce that we have been able to offer 2 scholarships for membership to TTPC women. There is one more pot of money for someone who may need an offset or full coverage. It will be given on a first come basis.

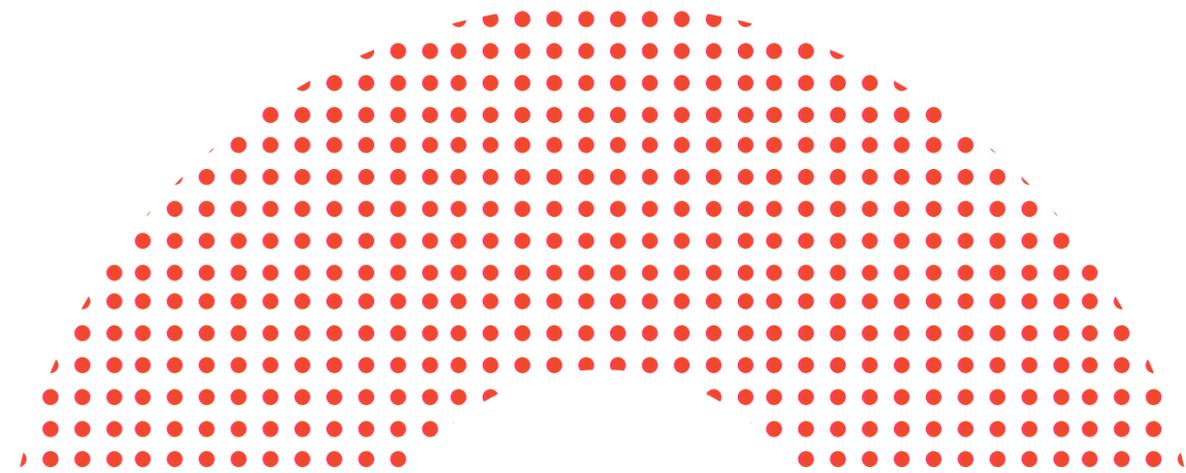

TTPC Membership

The collective power of this group is in our combined knowledge, intention, networks and resources. True to the beginnings of TTPC, I want to ensure that every member is dedicated to collaborating and leveraging their networks and resources where possible and applicable to create opportunities for other TTPC members. We will start having "Power Sessions" 45-60 minute talks that are designed to focus on one of the prongs of the TTPC "One Vision" Ethos in hopes of creating more opportunity for TTPC members to learn, give back, and further your own endeavors.

Sustainable Success

Luminous Mindset

How clear are you about your intentions and your intended outcomes? Have you truly allowed yourself to desire and go after what you truly want in life and career?

Rest/Balance

Rest and balance must be a high priority if you are to be successful long-term. If your health is out of alignment you won't have far to go.

Get over perfection and convention

The people who are most successful respect time, consequence, and positioning, but aren't slaves to any of it. If you wait for things to be perfect you will often miss grand opportunities to catapult yourself ahead.

Growth on my Terms Affirmation

"I am growing on my own terms. I am in no rush.
Everything is happening as it should.
I am whole even when challenges arise.
I honor who I am currently and who I have yet to become.
My desires, dreams, and goals are worthy of exploration and execution.
I commit to loving, supporting, and uplifting my fellow sistas."

Love, Janine
